"DEARIE'S" BAGGAGE ADDS TO STEAMSHIP DEPARTURE INCIDENTS

"Darling, I've lost my hand baggage," shouted Miss Eva Mudge, who was recently such a great success at the Bijou Theater, as she stood quivering with excitement in her little short skirt on the gangway of the Sierra this morning. A tall naval officer came along and placed leis around her neck, and evidently diverted her thoughts from the missing baggage, but her little girl took up the work of worrying and danced about in her excitement. When the affecting leave taking between Uncle Sam's representative and the little actress was concluded, the gentleman known as "dearie" cut in with the query: "Dearie, have you found it?" "No," dearie answered, "For heaven's sake," was the valuable assistance that he rendered. Dearie at this stage looked ready to turn her face into an irrigation patch, but the flood gates were held back by the safe arrival of the luggage, and the ship was ready to sail, as far as she was concerned, for dearie and darling and dearie secundus all marched on board, and the dull everyday work of loading the ship proceeded, while people resumed their effecting farewells.

Berger's band had left by this time, so all could shout and be heard. The scene, as usual, was a gay one, the 130 cabin and forty steerage passengers all having at least an average of three people to see them off. Leis were plentiful, and the streamers of multi-colored ribbons made a pretty sight as they were criss-crossed from the steamer to the wharf. The baggage was late in being stowed, and this accounted for the delay of twenty-five minutes in pulling out.

The Sierra is in command of Captain Trask, who has been so popular as the chief mate for a long time.

In addition to the mail's, the Sierra had about 1000 tons of sugar, 1000 tons of miscellaneous freight and 1500 burlap bags of bananas.

The gangway had been lowered and everything was in readiness for the Sierra to pull out, when it was discovered that Mrs. Bergin had forgotten to leave the boat, so the gangway had to be raised again while she gained the wharf.

Wilhelmina Is a Full Ship.

The Wilhelmina pulled out dead on time this morning with a big passenger list, and a large amount of freight, which included 4800 tons of sugar molasses, bananas, pine apples, rice, general merchandise, in fact, everything but coffee.

Berger's band made the rafters shiver and the galvanized iron quiver with the strains of music from his aggregation, for the Wilhelmina had the honor of leaving to the strains of Auld Lang Syne, the Sierra having had the benefit of this serenade earlier in the day. Once again the coveted flag bearing the letters U. S. M. was missing from the Wilhelmina, indicating that the Sierra had been entrusted with the mails on this trip.

The popularity of this ship was once more attested by the large crowd that went to see her off while with the traveling public there was no greater evidence that she is popular than a glance at the full passenger list.

Wallele Found an Anchor.

The chief point of interest about the Wallele's trip to Hawaii was the finding of an old anchor off Honokaa. Whose it is, is not known, but it was hoisted on board the Wallele.

Wallele With Cattle and Sugar.

The Wallele arrived this morning from Hawaii with eighty head of cattle, one calf, fourteen bales of wool, fifteen empty wine barrels, twenty-three packages of sundries, 8,000 SIBERIA, Am. S. S., from Honolulu ar. Yokohama, May 21.

TENYO MARU, for Honolulu from San Francisco, June 21.

VIRGINIAN, Am. S. S., from Hilo ar. Salina Cruz, June 13.

WADDON, Br. S. S., from Honolulu for Newcastle, via Ocean Island, April 14.

WILLIAM P. FRYE, Am. ship, for Delaware Breakwater, May 22.

WILHELMINA, from Honolulu for San Francisco, June 21.

W. H. MARSTON, Am. schr., from San Francisco to Honolulu and Pearl Harbor, water-logged and towed back to San Francisco.

W. J. PATTERSON, Am. scr., from Honolulu for Gray's Harbor, June 9.

ZEALANDIA, Br. S. S., from Honolulu, ar. Sydney June 16 (June 12?)

bags of sugar, fifty bags of seed cane and ten empty soda water boxes.

Sugar Awaiting Shipment.

Purser Hayden, of the Wallele reports that there were 23,000 bags of sugar at Kukuhaele and 13,600 bags at Honokaa.

Purser Logan, of the W. G. Hall, reports that the following sugar was awaiting shipment on Kaula: G. & R., 1,300 bags; M. A. K., 44,284; McB., 4,187; K. K. B., 5,590; K. P., 14,299; G. F., 12,319; P. L., 5,678, and M. S. Co., 8,300.

W. G. Hall Has Sugar.

Five thousand five hundred bags of sugar comprised the principal item in the W. G. Hall's cargo from Kaula this morning. She also had three horses, sixty-four bags of rice and fifty-two packages of sundries.

Lurline on the Way.

The Lurline left San Francisco yesterday for Honolulu direct. In ordinary circumstances she would have left on the 14th, but she has been put on a twenty-eight-day schedule, and this time she was held at San Francisco to undergo some necessary repairs. She will be due here on the 27th and will leave again on July 3.

Thetis to Bering Sea.

The revenue cutter Thetis left yesterday afternoon at half-past five for her annual patrol of the Bering Sea in company with other members of the fleet. When she will be back here is not known. It is possible, however, that a more up-to-date vessel will replace her.

Claudine from Hawaii.

The Claudine arrived this morning from Hawaii via ports with 110 sacks of seed sale, fifty-one sacks of taro, seventeen crates of chickens, 303 water melons, forty-one bundles of empty bottles, one horse, forty-four hogs, twenty-eight packages of hides and 155 packages of sundries.

Marama Due Friday Noon.

The Canadian-Australian steamer Marama wireless in yesterday to the effect that she would be here from Vancouver at about noon on Friday next. At eight o'clock on Monday night she was 1,300 miles away from Honolulu. She will, in all probability, leave for Australia the same evening.

New Canadian-Australian Schedule.

On Monday the agents for the Canadian-Australian Steamship Company, Theo. Davies & Co., received copies of the new schedule of this line, but it only goes up to August.

The first boat to leave under the new arrangement will be the Marama. Brisbane has been cut out, and Auckland substituted. She is due to leave Sydney on July 31 and Auckland on August 4. Suva four days later, Honolulu on the 15th and Victoria and Vancouver on the 22d. This will mean no alteration in the timetable as far as Sydney, Suva, Honolulu and Vancouver are concerned. The only thing about it is that the journey will have to be accelerated. The homeward schedule is not yet given.
